

From: SEEDS Joshua
To: Eastman, Susan
Cc: Kubo, Teresa; Henning, Alan; STEWART Sheree
Subject: RE: New Issue of High Country News
Date: Monday, December 15, 2014 5:13:59 PM

Agreed. The grassroots effort has already gained momentum, and the state agencies and Oregon Legislature are taking notice. We may see some changes to regulatory authority in the upcoming legislative session.

From: Eastman, Susan [mailto:Eastman.Susan@epa.gov]

Sent: Monday, December 15, 2014 5:09 PM

To: SEEDS Joshua

Cc: Kubo, Teresa; Henning, Alan; STEWART Sheree

Subject: FW: New Issue of High Country News

Saw your name and quote in the HCN article. Hope this grassroots effort gains momentum soon and appreciate your continued efforts in this. I would not want to live close to private forest lands after reading this. Frustrating to not have regulatory authority to help.

From: Cain, Kristina

Sent: Monday, December 15, 2014 1:33 PM

Subject: New Issue of High Country News

High Country News

Table of contents and full text available at:

<http://www.hcn.org/>

Nonresponsive

Nonresponsive

Print issues available in the library.

(reply to library-reg10@epa.gov)

U.S. EPA Region 10 Library, staffed by ASRC Primus

1200 Sixth Ave, Suite 900, OMP-104

Seattle, WA, 98101

library-reg10@epa.gov

P: 206-553-1289 (9-12, 1-4 P.S.T.)

F: 206-553-6346

The EPA Region 10 Library serves EPA staff and all residents of Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington. We can help locate technical EPA information, regulations, legislation, guidance, and more. Residents in the 4 states can borrow up to 5 EPA reports at a time from us. Hours are M-F, 9 - 12, and 1 - 4 at our Seattle location, except on Federal Holidays.
